Dear Dr. Frank Liberti:

The New York State Continuing Legal Education Board received your application seeking accreditation of the following out-of-state course:

Name of Course: Prevent Low Settlement Evaluation

Date(s): July 18, 2020

Formats: Webconference

Sponsor's Headquarters: Florida

IC #: 28927

Based on the information supplied in your application, it appears that the above course is accredited by a New York Approved Jurisdiction (Colorado, Florida, Illinois, Louisiana). Therefore, so long as certain requirements are satisfied, New York attorneys may apply CLE credit earned for the completion of your course to their New York CLE requirement without the need for a review of your application by New York. Section 8(A)(4)(c) of the CLE Board Regulations and Guidelines prevents us from reviewing applications where the sponsor offers an out-of-state course that is accredited for CLE in another state on our Approved Jurisdiction list. Although you may be able to inform attorneys that New York's Approved Jurisdiction policy applies, you may not advertise that the course has been accredited by New York. Please also note that the obligations of accreditation set forth in New York's Regulations and Guidelines do not apply to you.

Please refer to the "Approved Jurisdictions" section of the NY CLE website for details and a list of New York's Approved Jurisdictions. Please read New York's Approved Jurisdiction policy carefully to make sure that you comply with all requirements, and in particular the requirements regarding a) written materials, b) attorney faculty, c) proof of acceptable attendance verification for nontraditional format courses.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact a member of the CLE staff at cle@nycourts.gov.

Sincerely,
New York State CLE Board Staff
